Re-Clam The Bay

Saturday Only

See Live Baby Clams, Oysters & Other Bay Creatures

Re-Clam The Bay is a local non-profit environmental organization that promotes environmental involvement and education in a constructive way. Young and old will enjoy this interactive exhibit where they will learn about shellfish gardening and the bay. Learn why we say, "A clam is a man's best friend", and how you can help care for the bay.

Visit reclamthebay.org to learn more.

Lakewood BlueClaws

Kids Run The Bases

Children 4 to 12 years old get their chance to run the bases on a genuine Minor League baseball field both Saturday and Sunday. Come with your parents and meet us between Sections 106 & 107 at 12 pm and 2pm.

Meet Buster!

The Lakewood BlueClaws Official Team Mascot

Buster will be attending the boat show at 1pm on Saturday, September 24th!

Jenkinson's Aquarium

Touch Tank & Crafts

Jenkinson's Aquarium portable touch tank will provide the opportunity for visitors to see, touch and learn about local invertebrates. The local invertebrates may include sea stars, whelks, sea urchins and horseshoe crabs. In addition, there will be a craft for children. Instructions and materials will be available for children of all ages to make a famous "pasta shell crab".

The touch tank will be at the show on Saturday only. Crafts on Saturday & Sunday

The New Jersey Sea Grant Consortium

Located on Sandy Hook, The NJ Sea Grant Consortium conducts marine science research and education. Little skippers can craft their own cork boats to test float and take home.

Visit the NJ Sea Grant booth to enter a free raffle for a beautiful rain barrel.

Be sure to visit NJSeaGrant.org to learn more about the organization and the activities going on at Sandy Hook.

Boating Education And Rescue Presents:

Junior Boaters, Boating Fun Workshop

These children's boating safety sessions will include: importance of wearing your properly fitted life jacket, how/when to use the marine radio, importance of knowing where you are on the water, environmental awareness and green boating practices, and what to do in an emergency. Adults can learn too!

Kids can also try a fun casting activity!

Face Painting by

Lori

Kids will be able to enjoy free face painting by Lori. With so many designs to choose from, there's something for kids of all ages!

Lori will be at the Kids Cove on Saturday & Sunday from 11 a.m to 2pm.
